Dear Parents and Guardians of Enloe High School German Students,

The annual German Day festivities take place on Wednesday, March 9, 2011 from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM at Guilford College in Greensboro. It is a day for us to display our German language and culture skills with German students from around the state. I hope your child can travel with us to Greensboro for the day to celebrate our talents in the German language through various competitions and events. The costs for the trip are as follows:

Registration per student:	$4.00
T-shirt (optional):	$8.00
Lunch (highly recommended):	$8.00
Transportation:	$16.00

Your child can choose to bring their own lunch. Leaving the Guilford College campus to have lunch at a nearby restaurant won't be allowed, however. I am not sure about on-campus eating establishments near the competition venues. I would purchase a lunch or bring your own.

We would probably leave Enloe High School that morning at 8:15 (after 1st period); more details on that later.

The chartered bus from Guilford College that day will return to Enloe at around 5:00 PM.

I could also use a chaperone for the trip. The German Day organizers do require that chaperones purchase a t-shirt and register (lunch provided for you at no cost), but our German Club is happy to pay your registration fee in return for your attendance! The registration fees support the NC Chapter of the AATG, American Association of Teachers of German, which in turn supports German Language teachers and programs across the state and country. If you are interested in chaperoning, please email me at nkandah@wcpss.net

Sincerely,

Herr Kandah
